

Young investigator grants

offered by the Australasian Menopause Society

The Australasian Menopause Society is pleased to offer two Grants for research into “Menopause and Healthy Aging”.

Two grants of $5000 are offered to PhD or post-doctoral researchers.

Applicants should send their CV, a 200 word outline of their project and details of their institution and supervisors by June 30, 2009.

Further details from:
Vivien Wallace
ams@netlink.com.au